MEMORANDA.[108]

N. B. ANNA MARGARETHA HEILMAN, on the 22nd of April, 1753, presented to the congregation at the Jordan a beautiful white altar-cloth. May God bless her in every way for this praiseworthy and Christian work.

When communion was held at Egypt, two shillings eight pence were held back. Jacob Kohler has the same in keeping.

Mr. Kohler also has 9 p.

I have also from the Jordan congregation one shilling one penny in keeping. Again, one shilling.

January 21, 1753, in the Heidelberg congregation, one shilling, 9 pence.

NOTES.

(In the translation of these records the spelling of the names has not been changed, except in cases where the vowel is modified, when a, o and u are written ae, oe and ue. C. R. R.)

1. Nothing without writing.
2. All for the glory of God and the salvation of our souls.
3. A Swiss of Zurich.
4. 96. Peter Kohler, son of Peter and Juliana Margaret Kohler, was born Dec. 18, 1780 and died Jan. 23, 1871. He married, Sept. 3, 1801, Catharina Steckel, who was born Dec. 12, 1782, and died June 3, 1853.

97. Henry Blumer, son of Rev. Abraham Blumer, was born Oct. 18, 1778 and died Aug. 13, 1824. His wife, Sarah Mickley, was born Nov. 27, 1786 and died Jan. 25, 1859.

98. Solomon Graff, son of Martin Graff, married Elizabeth Snyder and removed to Crawford county, Pa., where he died in Meadville, on May 17, 1828.

99. George Yundt, son of Jacob Yundt, was born March 30, 1744 and died April 13, 1828. He was many years a justice of the peace. He marrier, March 26, 1771, Eva Catharina Knauss, who was born Aug. 15, 1750 and died April 22, 1818.

100. Peter Ruch, son of Lorenz Ruch, was born Feb. 28, 1779 and died Nov. 19, 1838. He was captain of a troop of cavalry from Whitehall township in the War of 1812. Subsequently he became active in militia organizations, rising to the rank of brigadier general of militia in 1821. He married, March 13, 1801, Susanna Schreiber, daughter of Philip Jacob Schreiber.

101. David Laury was a prominent citizen of North Whitehall township and held various commissions from captain to major general in the state militia organization. He was a member of the State Legislature and in 1868 was elected associate judge of Lehigh county and re-elected in 1873. He died Sept. 28, 1883.

102. Jacob Schreiber was born Jan. 3, 1780 and died Dec. 25, 1865. His wife, Eve Catherine Leisenring, was born Oct. 3, 1786 and died May 31, 1866. This daughter, Salome, married Judge Jacob Dillinger.

103. These two entries of marriages in 1752 are in the handwriting of Rev. John Jacob Wissler. A special meeting of the Coetus of the Reformed Church was held in Philadelphia on this day, Dec. 12, 1752, to which Rev. Wissler sent his excuses, one of which was that he had an engagement to marry a couple.

104. This entry was made by Rev. J. Daniel Gros.

105. This marriage was performed by Rev. Abraham Blumer.

106. The first two entries of deaths were made by Rev Wissler, the third by Rev. Gros, and the last two by Rev. Blumer.

107. The names of the children confirmed were recorded by Rev. Wissler.

108. These memoranda were also written by Rev. Wissler.

BAPTISMAL AND MARRIAGE RECORDS.

REV. JOHN WALDSCHMIDT, 1752-1786.

REV. JOHN WALDSCHMID.

1724-1789.

From Fathers of the Reformed Church, Volume 11, pps. 88-92, Rev. Henry Harbaugh, D. D., Lancaster, 1857.

John Waldschmid was a native of the province of Nassau, in Western Germany. He was born August 6th, 1724, and educated for the ministry, in his native land. When, in 1751-2, Mr. Schlatter visited that country, with a view of securing ministers for the destitute American vineyard, he was one of the six young men who volunteered to accompany him to the New World. With the rest, he was examined and ordained, at the Hague; soon after which solemn occasion, they sailed for America, arriving at New York in the night preceding July 28th, 1752; and thence went to Pennsylvania.

Soon after their arrival in Pennsylvania, Mr. Schlatter accompanied him to Lancaster county, and installed him as pastor over the congregations of Cocalico (since called Swamp), Weiseichenland (then called Sebastian Reicher's church), Modecreek, and Zeltenreich. From a notice in the Record-Book of the Cocalico church, we learn that he was installed in his charge October 22d, 1752. He administered the Holy Supper in that congregation, for the first time, November 19th, 1752, to seventy-two communicants; "after having, on the previous day, preached a preparatory sermon, and inquired in regard to evidence of their fitness for the reception of that ordinance." On the 26th of the same month, he administered the Holy Supper to sixty communicants, in the congregation of Weiseichenland; and, January 28th, 1753, at Mode-creek.

On the 14th of May, 1754, he was married, by the Rev. William Otterbein, to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Christian Grub.

After Dr. Stoy ceased preaching at Tulpehocken, Mr. Waldschmid supplied that congregation two years, in connection with his charge, from 1756 to 1758. Some years later, he also preached, for a time, in the congregation of Heidelberg. His ministry in that church ceased in 1770, when they complained to Cotus that he was "a litle inactive, and neglectful of them;" after which, that congregation was joined with Reading. Whether there was just ground for this complaint, it is not easy to decide; we are inclined to think, that the distance he lived from the congregation, and their desire to be more conveniently connected with Reading, may explain it, at least in part. If this be so, it was neither the first nor the last time when persons saw faults in a minister, on which to build a justification of their own schemes. The long time during which this man of God labored successfully in the same charge, it seems to us, presents an argument, in favor of his efficiency, that far outweighs this incidental complaint.

Still, there was, at one time, also some dissatisfaction expressed by some in his own charge. In the Cotal proceedings of the year 1760, it is said: "In regard to the Rev. Mr. Waldschmid, it appears that his congregations are satisfied with his preaching; only they desire that he might be more diligent in family visitations, and more prudent in his general conduct." Tradition remembers him as a remarkably good-natured, mild, and easy man. With all his goodness, and devotion to the Church—of which there is no doubt—he may have needed, at times, the impulse of a special stimulus, to keep him moving with freshness, ministerial dignity, and pastoral earnestness.

As already intimated, he continued in the same charge to the end of his life. In the Record-Book, already referred to, we find the following touching entry, made by the hand of filial affection: "God, the Almighty, took our dear father out of the world to Himself, into a blissful eternity, on the 14th of September, 1786, between nine and ten o'clock in the forenoon. On the 15th, in the afternoon, at two o'clock, we committed his remains to the grave. The Rev. Mr. Boos preached his funeral sermon, from Psalm lxxiii, 23, 24. God grant that we may all come to where he is! Amen. The tombstone was erected October 6th, 1787; costs £7 and 2 shillings."

A circumstance, in connection with his tombstone, happened, about six years later, which was thought very singular; and which is not only traditionally remembered in the neighborhood, but we find a record of it in the Church-Book. On a Sunday, June 2d, 1793, while a large congregation was assembled in the church, listening to the Word of God, and when the winds were quiet, the tombstone of the Rev. Mr. Waldschmid suddenly broke off at the top of the ground, and fell flat upon the tomb. "Many saw it," says the Record, "and all heard it fall." The wonder, in connection with this event, was vastly increased, in the minds of the people, by the fact that Mrs. Waldschmid, who was demented, long before, and had not spoken a word for years, began to speak again with others, on that same day!

Mr. Waldschmid is buried in the graveyard connected with the church now called Swamp (in early times Cocalico), in Lancaster county, Pa. His widow survived him many years, and died July 12th, 1803. Besides daughters, he had two sons to perpetuate his name: one of them moved to the west; another, whose name was John, lived and died in the Swamp, on the farm where his father had resided, several miles northeast of the church. One of Mr. Waldschmid's daughters was the mother of the two Revds. Gring, who are still laboring in the ministry, in the German Reformed Church. On his tombstone is written:

"Hier ruhet in Gott
der Ehrw. Johannes Waldschmidt,
Geb den 6 August, 1724.
Ins Predigtamt verordnet 1752.
Starb den 14 September, 1786,
Alt 62 Jahre, 5 wochen, 4 Tage."
